- Emeritus British Journal of Photography Editor Jon Tarrant.

“The people are sometimes posed, sometimes revealed unaware of the photographer. David Marcou’s work is, in key respects, his own view of history, told through the gestures and expressions of notables, ordinary folks, and those near and dear to him…”

- Emeritus UW-La Crosse Art Photography Prof. Roger A. Grant.

David Joseph Marcou is author of about 75 personal books including SA16, plus director-editor of 14 group anthologies, including Vol. 1 of “Spirit of America”, winner of the Sept. 12th Guild’s top award. He graduated from the Universities of Wisconsin, Iowa, and Missouri, and reported from London and Seoul in the 1980s. His writings have been twice-nominated for Pulitzer Prizes (including for his play “Remembering Davy Crockett”), and his photo books twice-nominated for Pictures of the Year International Awards. His periodical publication-credits include in Smithsonian magazine, RPS Journal, Business Korea, and New York Times. His works are also in many libraries, galleries, museums, and archives globally, including in various Smithsonian Archives and the British National Portrait Gallery. David Joseph Marcou lives in La Crosse, WI.

Spirit of America, Vol. 16: Uniquely Personal

Inspired by the memory of my vital dad, David A. Marcou Jr.; my still-living mom, Rose C. Muskat Marcou; my son Matthew, his wife, Jessica Amarnek Marcou, and their key children-to-be; all our great relatives, friends, associates, coverage-subjects, publishers, publicists, readers, and archivists, plus the Providence of God.
